On Sunday, January 14th Mr. Michael Domitrz presented “May I Kiss You?” for St. Alphonsus’ ninth and tenth grade Youth Ministry Students. Many times since this fantastic presentation, including yesterday, January 30th, I have had people confront me and express their gratitude for providing this high level of information. One father shared that he wished he had been given the opportunity to hear what Mike shared when he was dating.

Mike was open, truthful, energetic, charismatic and to the point. The information he shared with the students came home to everyone present. Since parents accompanied the youth, there was a great deal of sharing after the program was over.

Another family shared with me that they are still talking about the night’s information. Since winter dances are just around the corner, it was an opportune time and subject matter for all to hear what GOD wants for us in our relationships with each other. The mystery and myths about dating were put to rest. The truths and practices of great dating were demonstrated. No one could have experienced a more meaningful, informational filled evening.

The Youth Ministry Department of St. Alphonsus Catholic Church in Greendale extends their lasting gratitude to Mike for sharing this delicate information with us.

I also am grateful for the super book, “May I Kiss You?” that refreshes and strengthens the information we received that special evening.

In Gratitude
