

FABENS HIGH SCHOOL

June 3, 2002

To Whom It May Concern:

Fabens High School recently had the distinct pleasure of participating in a presentation given by Mike Domitrz. His presentation entitled "SAY! Sexual Assault and You" was exceptional and I would definitely recommend his services to any organization.

Mr. Domitrz presented to our school on May 22, 2002. His presentation covered topics including dating, rape and the prevention of sexual assault. I can absolutely assure you that this presentation was handled in the most tasteful way and that his demeanor with the students was very appropriate. His command of the subject matter and his ability to relate to the students was superb. Not only did he explain what constitutes sexual assault, but he also instructed the students about appropriate dating guidelines. He provided them with examples of what they should and should not do when they are placed in a situation in which sexual assault and the prevention thereof may happen on a date.

The students that attended the presentation were also impressed. They were attentive and extremely engaged in the presentation. I received several positive comments from the students after the presentation was over. Since the subject matter is something that can happen to anyone, I know several students will think twice about their actions before they engage in behavior not becoming of young ladies and gentlemen. For the most part, no one has spoken to the students about their dating conduct, and for this Mr. Domitrz deserves much thanks and appreciation. He gave them information that otherwise might have gone unheard.

I would like to reiterate that this presentation was outstanding. The students and faculty of Fabens High School hold Mr. Domitrz in the highest esteem because of his down-to-earth approach and his willingness to share his knowledge of the subject matter. If you have any questions or would like further feedback on the content of the presentation, please do not hesitate to contact me.
